Monthly Report of Subject-Panels and Units

【November 2021】

English Language

Online English Programme for S.1 – S.5 students

To enhance students' language proficiency and enrich their general knowledge, all S.1- S.5 students will enroll in Reading i-Learner, which is an online learning programme, from mid-November 2021 to the end of August 2022. This online English platform consists of reading, writing, vocabulary and grammar exercises. It is hoped the online programme can expand students' exposure to English and encourage self-directed learning. The subscription fee will be sponsored by our school. Students are expected to reach a satisfactory completion rate and their performance will be monitored by subject teachers.

The 73rd Hong Kong Schools Speech Festival

117 students have signed up for Solo Verse Speaking and News Presentation in the Hong Kong Schools Speech Festival this year. We are grateful for both our students' keen enthusiasm in taking part in the competition and our English teachers' efforts in training students to be more competent public speakers. We look forward to students' impressive performance and encouraging results.

Reading Promotion

In order to encourage students to read, the reading promotion team purchased an additional 200 e-books on the e-reading platform of HKedcity, including the most popular mystery novels and campus novels. Students are welcome to log in (<https://www.hkreadingcity.net/ereadscheme>) to download e-books. Students who participate most actively will be rewarded. For login details, please refer to page 4 of the booklet of LCD Reading Award Scheme (閱賞簿).

LAC

To build confidence to speak up, students are also encouraged to make announcements for various school activities constantly.

Library

• Morning Reading Scheme

The Morning Reading Scheme has officially started on 8th October, 2021. The school has arranged students to have morning reading session from 8:00 to 8:30 in the morning (Monday & Friday). With the gentle music melody, the class teachers lead the students to read together. The aim is to create a reading atmosphere, and hope to integrate the reading habits into the students' daily life.

• Treasure Quiz Game (E-book Reading)

In order to enable students to further master the operation methods of Bibliography Retrieval, downloading and reading on the e-book platform of HKedCity, the school library launched a Treasure Quiz Game in mid-October. The objective of this activity is to encourage students to master the operation method of e-book platform as soon as possible, improve students' reading volume and reading motivation. The top 50 most accurate students receive a gift! Each participant receives a stamp in the booklet of LCD Reading Award Scheme.

• Book Giving Activity

The library launched a Book Giving Activity in late October. Students can go to the library to select their favorite books and take them home. There is no limit to the number of complimentary books, they are on a first come, first served basis. Each participant receives a stamp in the booklet of LCD Reading Award Scheme.
