Monthly Report of Subject-Panels and Groups

【April 2021】

English Language

1. “Good People Good Deeds” – English Writing Competition

To encourage creative writing and to promote universal moral values of dignity, kindness, respect, impartiality and the spirit of humanity, students of S1 to S5 entered the “Good People Good Deeds” English Writing Competition organized by Tung Wah and the EDB. Students created stories that pay tribute to those who live up to the ideals of our community. It is hoped that the competition can promote students’ interest in writing, ignite their heart for charity and encourage virtues in their daily life.

2. Phonic Course for Parents and Students

The course aims to promote home-school collaboration, strengthen the bond between parents and children and consolidate S1 students’ basic phonic skills. Strategies on vocabulary acquisition and prose-reading skills will also be touched on. The three 45-minute lessons taught by our English teachers will take place on 17/4, 24/4 and 8/5. It will be an invaluable opportunity for parents to learn together with their children.

3. Book Crossing Programme

The English Department is running a Book Crossing Programme. Some extra copies of fiction and non-fiction are available for students to pick up for free.

Date: 15-16 April 2021

Venue: Lion Hall
